

SAINT MUSE 17 INTERNATIONAL THEATER FESTIVAL

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

“Saint Muse 17” International Theater Festival will be held on 7-17 September 2023 under the theme “Nomadic Culture in the World Culture” in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia. The call for participation is now open until 31 May 2023.

Saint Muse Academy, the main organizer of the festival, is a member of ITI-Mongolia and has been organizing the festival since 2002. The festival is recognized by the International Theater Institute, worldwide organization of performing arts and is supported by the Mongolian ITI.

The aim of the festival is to bring performing artists together to share ideas and learn from each other to create connections and mutual understanding between theater groups that is beyond any borders or other limitations. The festival invites theater works in genres of drama, musical drama, children’s play, 2-person play, and monodrama divided into two sections – large stage and small stage plays. Each section has Grand Prix award for the best performance.

Please carefully read the application form attached to this call and send your application along with the supporting appendixes to itimongolia.sma@gmail.com.

Please note that the organizing committee will receive all applications and contact only for the selected performances. The organizing committee will provide accommodation, meals, and in-city transportations only. Air tickets for international travels will be the responsibility of the participating group.

We look forward to celebrating theater together from the best and inspiring performances from around the world.

Yours sincerely,

SARANTUYA Sambuu

President of the Organizing Committee
