

International Drama Colony of the ITI Croatia Centre and Network of Emerging Arts Professionals of the ITI

Present

Arts Residency in Performance Creation

Preamble

The ITI Croatia Centre in collaboration with the Network of Emerging Arts Professionals of the ITI will host a residency program in Performance Creation at the ITI Croatia Centre's annual program, the International Drama Colony in Istria, Croatia in July 2018. The residency program will be for one week and it will involve workshops in acting (Chekhov method of acting) and in playwriting. Participants will explore the theme of Conflict from diverse perspectives. The residency program will present young and emerging playwrights and actors an opportunity for staging their plays. The residency program is intriguing and attractive as it is set in the environment of the medieval Istrian town of Grožnjan.

Call for Applications

The International Drama Colony of the ITI Croatia Centre in collaboration with the Network of Emerging Arts Professionals of the ITI invite applications from emerging and early career actors and playwrights for the residency program. The Croatia ITI Centre will cover accommodation, food and local transportation expenses for participants. International travel expenses will be covered by participants.

Interested playwrights are to submit a 5-10 minute play on the theme of conflict. Play entries should be accompanied with applicant's Curriculum Vitae. Those who are interested in acting should submit their CV highlighting their acting experience. Applicants can only submit an application to one category.

The deadline for application submission is November 1st, 2017, and results will be announced in December 2017.

For more information contact Taiwo Afolabi taiwoafolabi4 (at) gmail.com and Nina Krizan nina.krizan5 (at) gmail.com

Produced by the Croatian Centre of the ITI under the leadership of Zeljka Turcinovic

Visit: www.hciti.hr