Synopsis

Mrs. Ludmila, is a retired sewing teacher and a very unusual lady; she set off with her suitcase and parrot Ara Bella on a journey full of fun adventures. Without brakes, twice too much and half too little, she will travel to an unusual kiosk, continue her journey through the forest, realize that anyone who is silent can go mad, learn to swim and fall in love with the sea; eventually she will return home to her friend Mr. Blaznik.

She will discover that life is a picnic. The text and pictures in this book will stir the imagination and make us laugh.

About the tandem Masha Ogrizek and Tanja Komadina.

There is no picnic without friends. Mrs. Ludmila is an extremely unusual lady who will embark on a journey filled with many fun adventures with her suitcase and her parrot Ara Bella. Without brakes and twice too much, and then too little he will reach an unusual kiosk, only to continue his path through the forest and realize that the one who stays silent will also go crazy.

Masha Ogrizek and Tanja Komadina are a new co-creative tandem, which will win both children and their parents and take them on an eccentric and unusual adventure.
