Communiqué du Centre Burkinabé de l'Institut International du Théâtre (CB-IIT)

La Journée Mondiale du Théâtre créée par l'ITI a été célébrée pour la première fois le 27 mars 1962, date d'ouverture de la saison « Théâtre des Nations » à Paris. Depuis Lors, chaque année à cette date, la Journée mondiale du théâtre est célébrée à l'échelle mondiale.

Les objectifs de la Journée mondiale du théâtre sont entre autres :

- Promouvoir la forme artistique à travers le monde.
- Sensibiliser les gens à la valeur de l'art.
- Permettre aux communautés du théâtre de promouvoir leur travail à grande échelle afin que les leaders d'opinion soient conscients de la valeur de cette forme et la soutiennent.

L'auteur du Message de la Journée mondiale du théâtre 2022 est Peter Sellars. A l'occasion de la célébration de la Journée Mondiale du Théâtre le 27 mars, le Centre Burkinabé de l'Institut International du Théâtre (CB-IIT) invite la communauté des artistes de la scène du Burkina Faso à célébrer cette journée de 2022 par l'organisation d'activités artistiques et culturelles sur toute l'étendue du territoire nationale, avec la lecture du message ci-joint.

Le bureau du CB-IIT a le plaisir de vous informer qu'il organisera une lecture publique du message de la Journée mondiale 2022 à l'occasion d'une soirée artistique à l'Espace Culturel Gambidi à partir de 20 heures. En rappel, l'Institut International du Théâtre (ITI) est la plus grande organisation mondiale des arts de la scène. Il a été créé en 1948 sous l'égide de l'UNESCO avec pour mission essentielle la promotion de la contribution des arts à l'édification d'un monde de paix, de justice et d'harmonie sociales. Les valeurs de l'ITI sont:

INSPIRATION, INCLUSION, COLLABORATION et TRANSPARENCE.

Le centre du Burkina Faso a été créé en 1987.
